

GED® Test Preparation Classes

“My daughter Lauren attended GED classes along with me. Rio Salado College gave my daughter Lauren Hersom a sense of hope.”

- Susan Hersom,
Rio Salado GED Graduate

Rio Salado’s Adult Education program offers in-person and online classes to prepare students for the GED® Test. The classes focus on all subject areas of the test: social studies, reading and language arts, science, math, and civics.

In Person Classes

In-person classes charge a registration fee based on a sliding scale, with the lowest fee being $25. Classes are open to community members who are at least sixteen years old. Classes are taught in English and are held at six different locations conveniently located throughout Maricopa County:

- RSC Avondale: 420 N. Central Ave., Avondale 85323
- RSC Downtown: 619 N. 7th Ave., Phoenix 85007
- RSC LLC: 12535 W. Smokey Dr., Surprise 85374
- RSC Northern: 1715 W. Northern Ave., Phoenix 85021
- RSC Southern: 3320 S. Price Rd., Tempe 85282
- RSC Thomas: 3631 W. Thomas Rd., Phoenix 85009

GED test preparation classes are funded by the Arizona Department of Education, Adult Education Services.

Online GED Classes Option

Rio Salado offers online GED® Test preparation classes. The classes are open to all students regardless of residency status and are taught in English. There is a $125 charge for the online preparation class plus the cost of materials. To register call 480-517-8540 and reference course GED800-10000. Course fees are subject to change.
